Wow

These are some of the many events that are somewhat hidden from the public. For example we have here on the left the jury for one of Davis house infamous "KANGAROO COURT" where students are put on trial for things such as "Birthdays". Moving right along, below we have a picture of a new boy in what used to be called the new boys' race but has now changed to "new Person's race", if you look to the other side of the page, at the top you will see what this boy had to pass through.

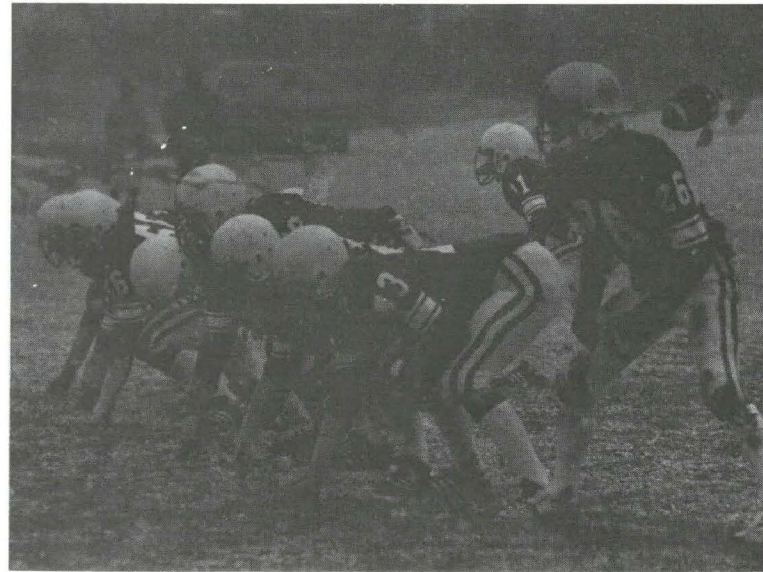

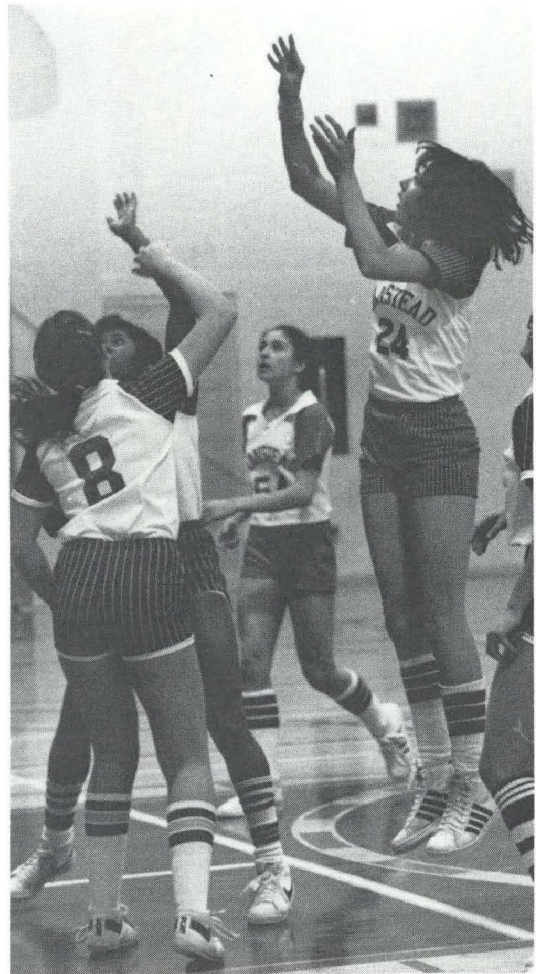

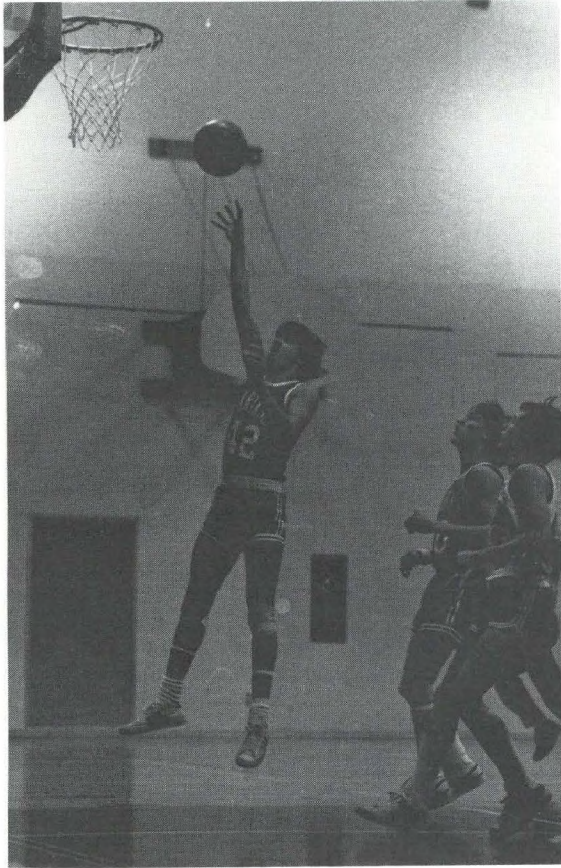

Ah! There is one of the girls at one of our dances and over to the extreme left at the bottom we have a boy from Colby who decided to change his hair style. Below we have one of the teachers supervising the new person's race.

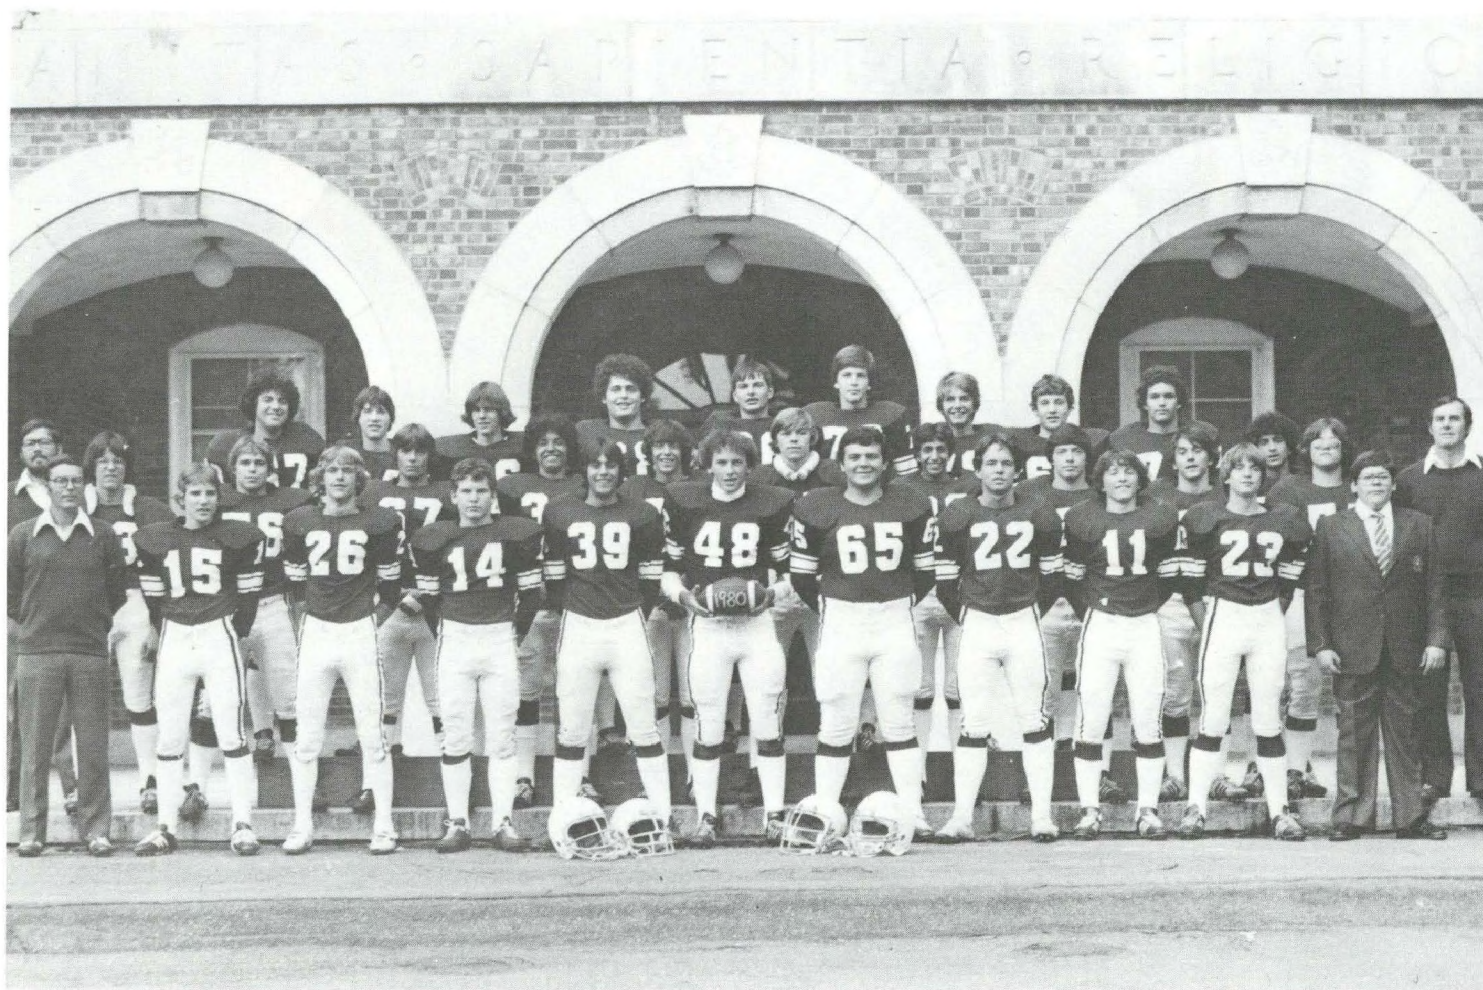

Right above we have a picture of the judge and the persecutor at the kangaroo court. If you are wondering what they are doing don't bother, I'll tell you. They are preparing the treatment or punishment for the accuser.

1980 SPARTANS - A Team with a Heart

The varsity football team enjoyed yet another very satisfying football season winning more games than they lost. With the returning veterans, led by Captain Phil Huckins, plus some potentially talented youngsters moving up from the junior ranks and some new senior faces in the camp, the season looked promising from the start. We knew the E.T.I.A.C. Conference was going to be very competitive along with our annual exhibition rivals, Selwyn House, Ashbury, and our own Alumni.

I would like to pay tribute to a "team" with a special blend of togetherness. Stanstead has the reputation of always providing stiff competition regardless of the sport or the circumstances and this year's edition of the Spartans clearly exemplified this tradition.

In spite of the fact that Stanstead was without all-star quarterback, Tim Lambert, for both Massey Vanier games, this team needed no excuses for coming up a little short as they were in the last game right to the bitter end - an excellent combination of veterans and rookies, experience and youth, and above all "heart".

Assistant coaches Grivell and Tintpolver did an excellent job with a lot of unknowns this year and the best thing, in my opinion, to come out of this season was undoubtedly the play and improvement of the youngsters on the team with the distinct prospect that the majority of this year's team may be back next fall, a year older and a year wiser.

Team Record - 7 wins, 2 losses

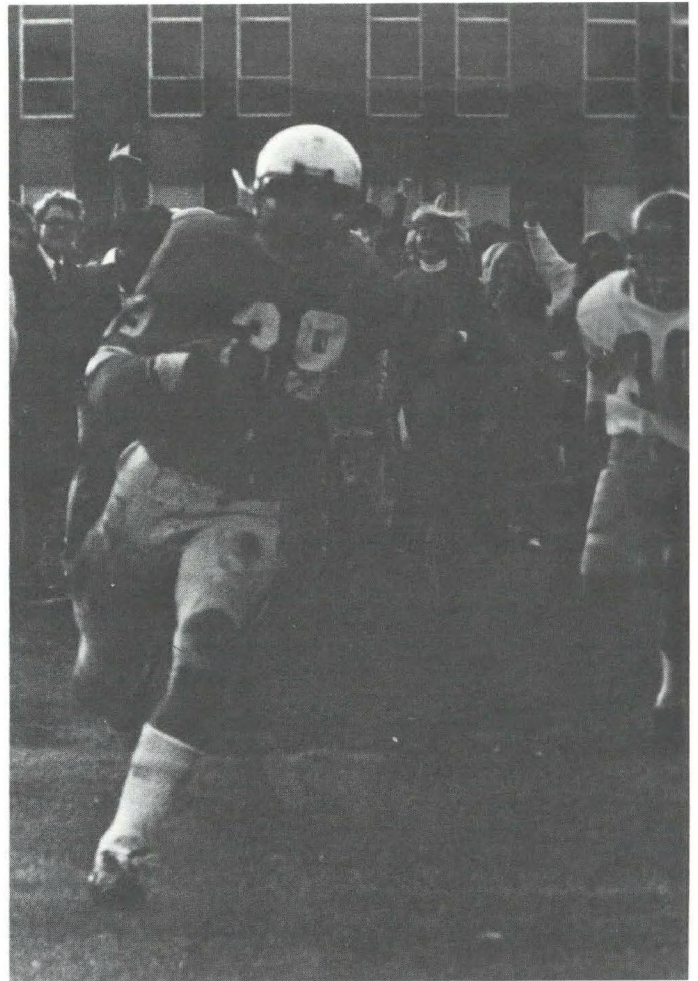

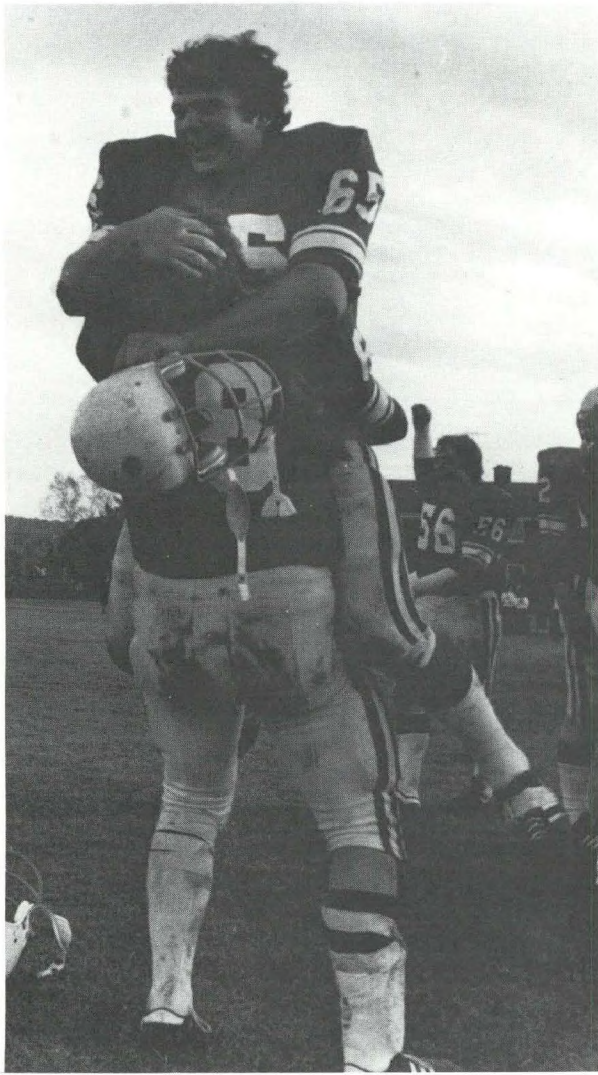

Points for: 195 Points against: 106

Scoring Champion - a new school record - Graham Black, 67 points.

Winners of the Senator C.B. Howard Trophy

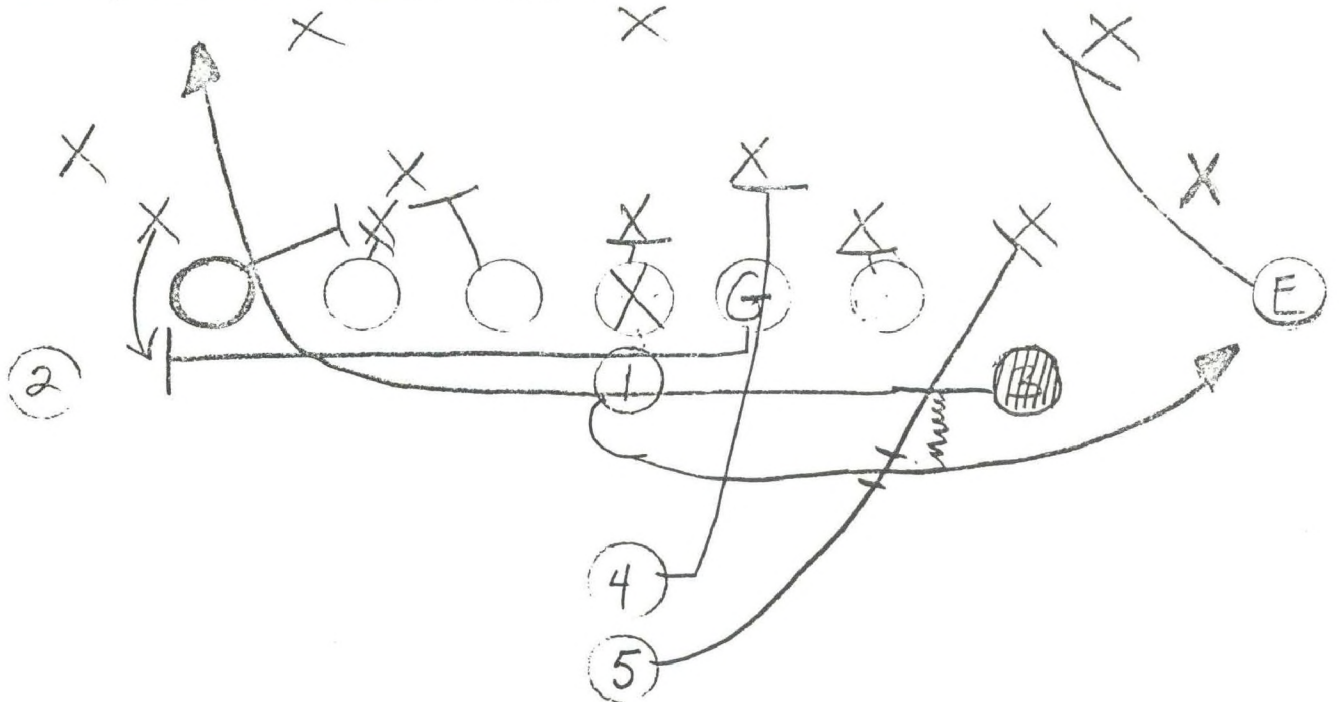

"Jamie Morden" Alumni Cup.

Varsity Soccer

This was another enjoyable, if not highly successful, season. As usual we had a combination of new boys and old boys, of experience and of new talent, but as has been common in recent years, a generally short and non-physical group of players. With Captain Steve Doyle setting the example in many vigorous and skillful games, we produced many strong performances, notably our away win at BCS and our high scoring at Ashbury. Our lack of size and strength became apparent in the play-off matches; we certainly had the skill to defeat Galt and Richmond but were overpowered by Galt at the end of the season.

However, no disgrace to the team; we tried hard and gave our best, and with the possibility of several returning players, next year could be our year. Many thanks to the team for being pleasant and co-operative. I had fun as always and congratulations to Steve Doyle for his winning of the "Bobby Moore Trophy" and to major S winners Scott Lothrop and Steve Jones.

Varsity Girls' Soccer

VARSITY GIRLS' SOCCER Fall 1980

For the first time, Stanstead had a Varsity Girls' Soccer team this year playing under the guidance of the rookie coach, Ms. Carol Bower. The team competed against some highly ranked and very experienced teams in the ETIAC League.

Since a number of the team members had had no previous experience the year had a rather rough and slow start. Fortunately we had a few rather skilled and experienced players, such as Michele Gregoire, Captain; Nadia Bakir, Goalie; Nazly Bakir, Centre Half-Back; a Judith James, On Wing. These girls, combined with several other determined girls, made up a fine squad that by the end of the season made Stanstead proud of their performance.

One quality the team possessed was unflagging determination - even under fierce competition they played their hearts out. During the season we faced a number of very tough matches from which we were able to learn. By the end of the season we were a team not to be taken lightly. The girls' basic skills and team play progressed rapidly and their naturally aggressive nature on the field created a threat even to our strongest competitors. We ended up by winning only a few games, but this does not do justice to the girls' fine efforts nor give any indication of the close matches we encountered.

J.V. Soccer

J.V. SOCCER

The JV Soccer team was quick and skillful, although size was somewhat lacking. Overall, the season was good with 7 Victories and 7 Losses. We were squeezed out of the playoffs in the final two tight matches. It was disappointing but the team deserves hearty congratulations for their efforts all season long.

Bantam Soccer

Cross Country

This year there were more participants than ever before who competed in the running programme. They all worked quite hard to attain a high level of fitness.

For the first time a new M.V.P. award was very kindly donated by a member of the Alumni, Doug Mossey. This was in honour of a close friend, the late Billy Greenshields, who also attended the College. This is to be awarded annually and was won deservedly this year by Jim Seviour.

Some of the highlights of the season would have to include: the consistent high placing in various competitions by Geoffrey Gallant and Jim Seviour; the fact that eight competitors qualified for the zone finals; and that Paula, Ann, and Annie placed quite high in the E.T.I.A.C. meet near the end of the season. It should be noted that both Geoff and Jim qualified and ran in the Provincial Meet held in L'Annonication, Quebec.

All in all, I would have to say that this group was enjoyable to work with. Thanks go to Nina Cohen for her help as team manager. A special note of appreciation to Captain Neil MacTavish who, through his efforts and leadership, set the example all season.

Varsity Hockey

Although the latest edition of the hockey Spartans did not have a stellar season based on their won-lost record of 2 - 14 in league play there were many highlights. The team was led in scoring by Captain Phil Huckins who anchored the defence superbly, ably assisted by John Bushnell and Chris Racicot. Steve Doyle, Graham Black and Ken Eryou provided considerable scoring punch while everyone gave it their best effort, which is all any coach can ask. The Red-White games with the alumni and varsity playing on mixed teams were a crowd-pleaser with the Red winning 16-13 overall, scoring 3 goals in the last 1:30 of the second game. The last league game saw the team defeat BCS 7-4 in their arena for the first time in recent years. With our new Headmaster present for inspiration, the team played their best hockey of the year. The Alumni game finished the season with the Varsity team triumphing 8-7 in an exciting contest which was only decided in the last minute. The game was highlighted by good play and sportsmanship on both sides and by the appearance of a ringer (Athletic Director Alex Philip) on the Alumni team. All-in-all, a very enjoyable season for everyone involved and we look forward to next year as a large number of players are returning.

Bantam Hockey

BANTAM HOCKEY 80-81

After many years of trying we were finally accepted into the local Border Minor Hockey League. It has certainly been an experience with both good and bad points, but the good far outweighed the bad.

At the beginning of the hockey season things did not look too hopeful. We had barely enough hockey players of bantam age and that left a team with excellent talent but little depth. As the season wore on our players improved and we started winning some games. By the end of the season we were just under a 50 - 50 season and had reached third place out of five teams. Not a bad climb from the cellar. The playoffs were a different story. Here we went against the first place team and lost the semi-finals in two straight. An unfortunate end to a season which had turned much better than anticipated.

J.V. Hockey

J.V. HOCKEY

The J.V. Hockey team had a long and frustrating season. Although they were the leagues weakest team, they gave it their all in every game. The season's highlight had to be the final two playoff games in which they were narrowly defeated by the team which clinched the league championship. Congratulations to a team with courage and spirit.

M. Peirce

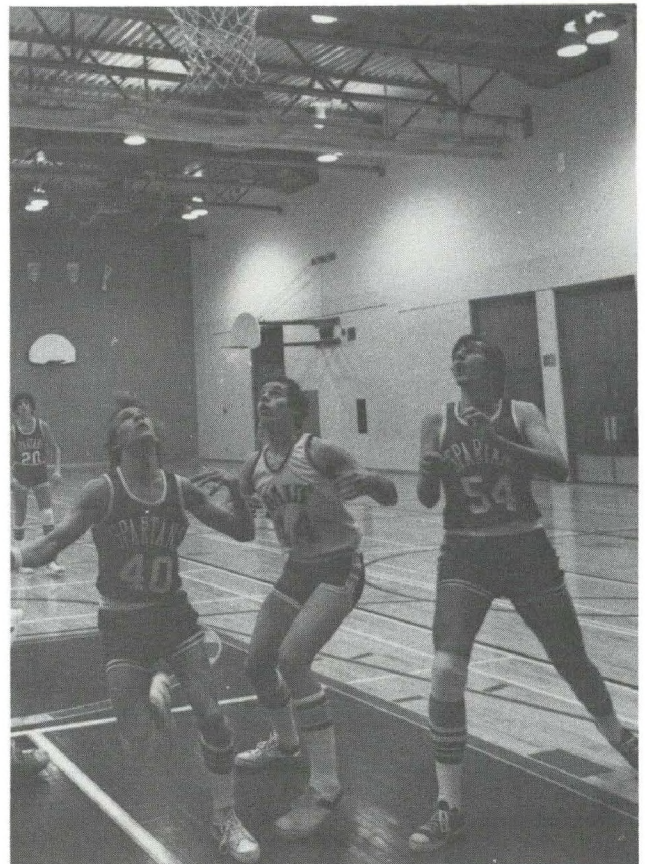

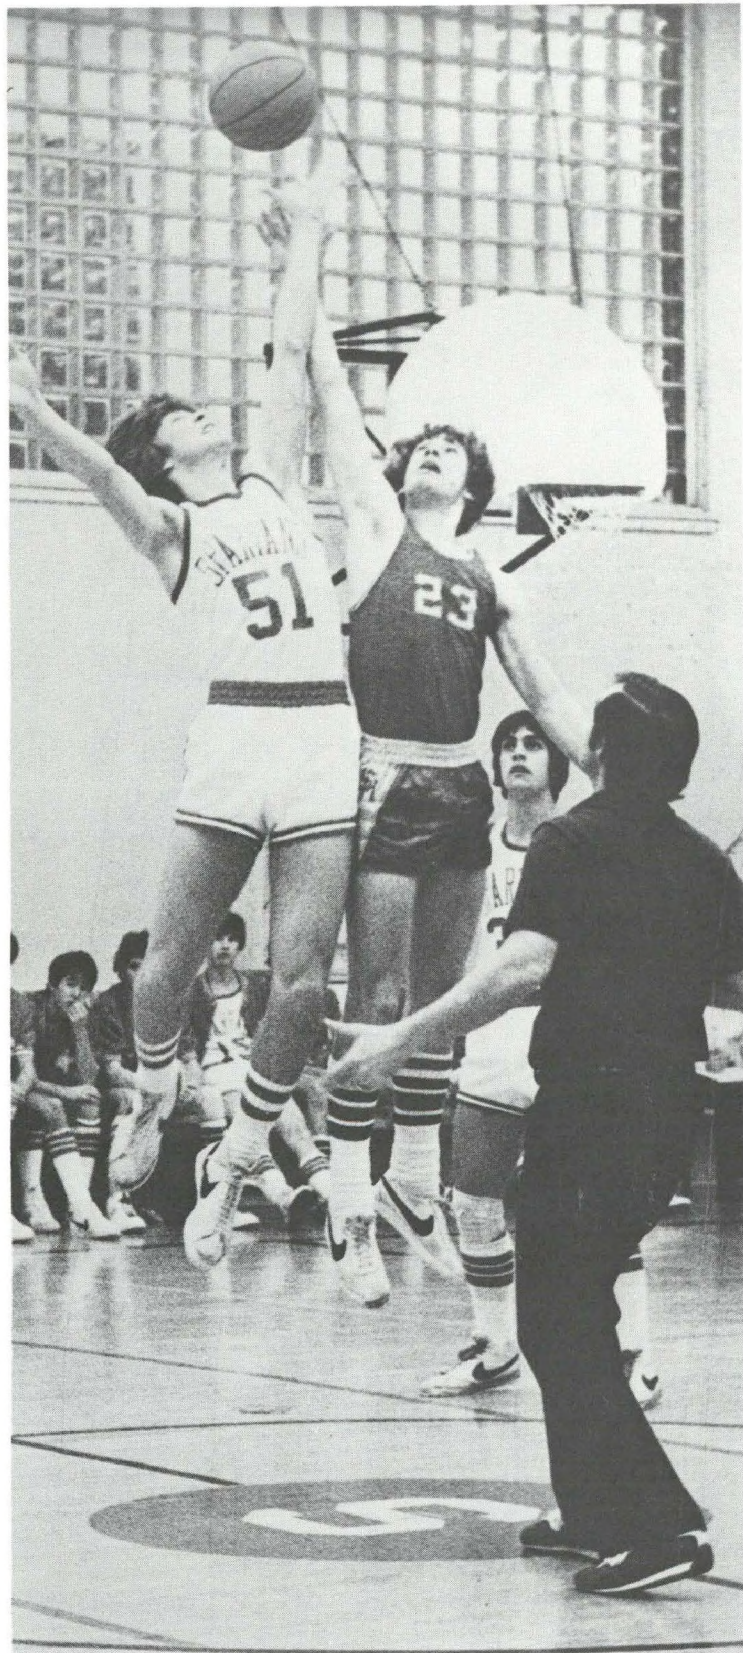

Varsity Basketball

Following some truly great seasons, this was the second year in a row the Varsity Basketball Spartans have put a young and inexperienced club on the floor and the season was to produce a number of frustrations and disappointments for the players.

The club got off to a good start with some key early season wins but as the year wore on the team came up a little short in some games for which they had worked so hard to win but lost. Experience and playing together for more than one year are essential in most sports and basketball is certainly one of them. This, in itself, helps to explain why the team did not do as well as they expected. However, there was certainly no loss of heart and desire or effort from this year's edition of the Spartans. As Coach Denney summed it up, they may not have been the best club I've coached talent wise, but no team has exhibited any more heart. This made coaching the team a worthwhile experience.

In league play the Spartans finished second with a 4 - 4 record but were eliminated in the semi-finals in an exciting game with the Massey-Vanier Vikings.

The team was led all round by newcomer David Singh and by the team's leading scorer, Pat Berman who shot over 60 per cent from the field in league play. Next season some of the team will return including guard and playmaker Jon Josephson and centre-forward Pat Berman as the nucleus from which to build. Hopefully, with some new talent entering the school, the Basketball Spartans will once again be able to approach some of its past excellence.

Squash Team

SQUASH SEASON 80/81

Squash is clearly becoming a popular sport at Stanstead, as it is in Canada and North America. At the beginning of the season several students had to be cut from those wanting to play. Along with the constant use of the courts this bears testimony to the "arrival" of Squash.

The decision that all players wear protective eye glasses on the courts (following the Provincial regulations) was a wise one, though many students found the glasses difficult to get accustomed to.

Sixteen students made up the Squash Squad, nine boys and seven girls. Some had played little before, but the majority were newcomers to the game. As in any sport the ones who worked the hardest, that were serious about learning and improving, did make the most progress; some others only made marginal improvement.

Every Wednesday we held internal knockout tournaments, and played some inter-scholastic tournaments with BCS and Selwyn House. Most of the players took part in the Eastern Townships Squash Tournament in February at Bishop's University, and some of the boys, along with Katsi Goodleaf, played in Montreal Tournaments. We had no great successes, but all this was valuable experience.

Kevin Talma clearly emerged as the top boy player and for only a second-year man shows great promise. Among the girls, Katsi Goodleaf's experience and hard-hitting kept her in Number 1 spot all season.

All in all a pleasant and rewarding season. Hopefully several of the Squad members will remain with Squash and pursue it at Clubs and at the Recreational level.

The Play

A LOOK AT THE PLAY

This was my first year as a member of the cast in the production of Thornton Wilder's "The Matchmaker", a farce in four acts. Although my role was a minor one, I attained a better understanding of the long hours of hard work and perseverance it takes to put such a production together.

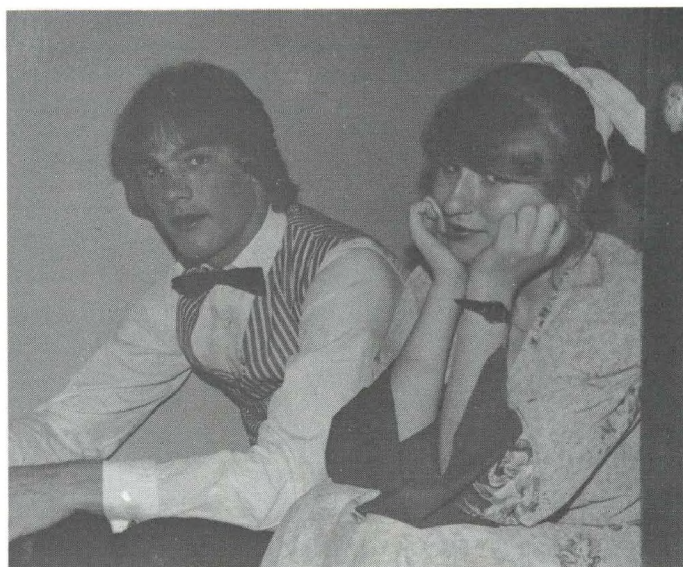

the audience, the cast and stagehands were freaking, the cast and stagehands were freaking out in hysteria. Except for Mr. Peirce. He was very calm and cool. He seemed to have complete confidence in us.

When the curtains closed at the end of the final performance on the third night, and the cast heard the tumultuous applause, we knew that it had been a job well done and an experience to remember.

Jeff Knowles

The tryouts commenced in February and nine actors and six actresses were appropriately chosen by the director of the play, the Rev'd Roy Peirce. Over the next few months the rehearsal seemed to drag on and on. The incessant demands placed upon us by the director, at the time were inconceivable and appeared insurmountable, such as having to know the lines of your part, whether it be fifteen lines or fifteen pages, and on top of that learning all the clues. Right from the beginning there was some uncertainty as to whether or not the play would be a success. Props had to be built and painted, costumes had to be designed. Thanks to Mrs. Walker for the latter for she did an excellent job. The debut was rapidly approaching, but with the few remaining weeks of very hard work and dedication the play really started to take shape.

On the first night of the three performances the play was performed before the school who proved to be a very receptive audience. Backstage, unknown to
